Roots in Montenegrin Tradition

The Zelena Coja has deep roots in Montenegrin rural communities, where clothing often carried symbolic meanings tied to social status, regional identity, and cultural values. Historically, these garments were handcrafted using locally sourced materials such as wool, linen, or cotton, with significant attention to detail and symbolism.

The green color, in particular, is believed to symbolize fertility, nature, and renewal?values that resonate strongly in a country famed for its majestic mountains and lush landscapes.

In the 20th century, as Montenegro modernized and urbanized, traditional garments like the Zelena Coja became more symbolic than functional, increasingly used during cultural festivals and performances to preserve and celebrate heritage.
