Breaking Down the Phrase

The phrase hinges on two main components: a passionate affinity for pigs and a limited number of meaningful relationships with people. Let's dissect each part:

- "All I care about are pigs"

- Indicates a strong affection or obsession with pigs, whether literally (as in animal lovers or farmers) or metaphorically (symbolizing innocence, simplicity, or a particular lifestyle).

- Could reflect a hobby, profession, or personal identity centered around pigs?perhaps a pig farmer, veterinarian, or enthusiast.

- "And like maybe 3 people"

- Signifies a highly selective approach to personal relationships, emphasizing quality over quantity.

- Suggests a preference for deep, meaningful bonds rather than superficial social interactions.

- Implies a sense of loyalty, trust, and exclusivity with these few individuals.

Overall, the phrase communicates a worldview that values specific passions and close relationships above broader societal involvement.
