What is a Board Resolution?

A board resolution is a formal document that records decisions made by a company's board of directors during a board meeting. It serves as an official record that authorizes specific actions, including opening, operating, or closing bank accounts. These resolutions are critical for maintaining corporate governance standards and ensuring that decisions are documented legally and organizationally.

Why is a Board Resolution Needed to Close a Bank Account?

- It involves a significant financial decision impacting the company's assets.
- It ensures accountability and transparency.
- It provides legal backing to bank authorities, preventing unauthorized account closures.
- It aligns with corporate governance protocols and internal control mechanisms.

Without a proper resolution, banks may refuse to process the closure, citing lack of authorisation, which could lead to operational delays or legal complications.

Legal Framework Governing Bank Account Closure

Legal Provisions and Regulations

Different jurisdictions have specific laws governing corporate banking operations. For example:

- In India, the Companies Act, 2013, and Reserve Bank of India (RBI) guidelines provide directives on account closures.
- In the United States, state laws and banking regulations govern such actions.
- International standards emphasize transparency and proper documentation.

Legal Validity of the Resolution

A resolution must be:

- Properly passed at a duly convened meeting with quorum.
- Clear in its intent, specifying the bank account to be closed.
- Signed by authorized signatories or directors.

- Dissolution of the company
- Poor account performance
- Compliance or regulatory reasons

A resolution is then proposed and put to vote. The resolution must be approved by the required majority, as specified in the company's bylaws.

- Any instructions regarding the handling of remaining balances.

Sample wording:

"Resolved that the company's bank account with [Bank Name], bearing account number [XXXXXX], be closed with immediate effect, and the authorized signatories are empowered to take all necessary steps to effect the closure."

4. Obtain Necessary Approvals and Signatures

Once approved, the resolution should be signed by the chairperson and company secretary or other authorized officers. Multiple copies may be prepared for distribution or submission to the bank.

5. Notify the Bank and Submit Necessary Documents

The company must formally inform the bank of the decision by submitting:

- The certified copy of the board resolution.
- A letter of instruction or application for closure.
- KYC documents or identification of authorized signatories.
- Any additional documentation required by the bank.

6. Reconcile and Settle Outstanding Balances
