On April 12, 1861, Confederate forces fired upon Fort Sumter in Charleston Harbor, South Carolina. This attack was the first military engagement of the Civil War and signaled the beginning of open conflict between the North and South. The Union's surrender of the fort to Confederate forces marked the start of hostilities that would last four years.

3. Who was Abraham Lincoln, and what was his role in the Civil War?

Correct Answer: He was the President of the United States during the Civil War, and he led the Union.

4. What was the significance of the Emancipation Proclamation?

Correct Answer: It declared all slaves in Confederate states to be free.

Explanation:

Issued by President Lincoln on January 1, 1863, the Emancipation Proclamation was a pivotal executive order that shifted the war's focus toward ending slavery. While it did not immediately free all slaves, it changed the character of the conflict, making the abolition of slavery a Union war goal.

Fought from July 1 to July 3, 1863, in Pennsylvania, the Battle of Gettysburg was the war's bloodiest battle and a decisive Union victory. It ended General Robert E. Fought on September 17, 1862, in Maryland, the Battle of Antietam resulted in over 23,000 casualties. Although tactically inconclusive, it halted Lee's invasion of the North and provided Lincoln the opportunity to issue the Emancipation Proclamation. The battle's high casualties and its political impact made it a pivotal moment.

8. What was the main purpose of the Union blockade?

Correct Answer: To prevent the Confederacy from trading with other countries.

Explanation:

The Union blockade aimed to cut off supplies, weapons, and trade from the Confederacy by sealing Southern ports. This strategy, part of the Anaconda Plan, sought to weaken the Confederate war effort economically and militarily, contributing significantly to the Union victory.

9. What was the outcome of the Civil War?

Correct Answer: The Union was preserved, and slavery was abolished.

Explanation:

The Union's victory in 1865 resulted in the preservation of the United States as a single nation.
