- Reflective Practice: Critical reflection on their own work, including decisions made and challenges faced, is essential for demonstrating understanding.
- Range of Media: The portfolio encourages experimentation with drawing, painting, digital media, sculpture, printmaking, textiles, and more.

Assessment criteria for coursework include:

- Creativity and originality
- Technical skill and craftsmanship
- Development of ideas
- Personal engagement and reflection

- Range and variety of media used

2. Externally Set Assignment (ESA)

This component provides an opportunity for students to undertake a sustained practical project based on a theme set by the examination board. It tests their ability to work independently under timed conditions.

Process overview:

- Preparation Period: Students select one question from a choice of themes and produce preparatory work over several weeks.
- Supervised Work: The final piece is created during a controlled, supervised session, usually lasting 10 hours.
- Submission: The final piece, along with preparatory studies, is submitted for assessment.

This component assesses the student's ability to synthesize ideas, plan, and execute a coherent artwork within constraints.

3. Written Component (Optional or as part of the scheme)

While primarily a practical subject, some IGCSE Art and Design courses include a written element:

- Artist Studies: Critical analysis of artists' work
- Personal Reflection: Articulation of ideas, influences, and processes
