JOHN HAGEE FOUR BLOOD MOONS

john hagee four blood moons has become a widely discussed topic among prophecy enthusiasts, biblical scholars, and those interested in end-times predictions. This phenomenon, associated with a series of lunar eclipses, gained significant attention in 2014 and 2015, when Christian evangelist John Hagee linked these celestial events to biblical prophecy and significant geopolitical shifts. Understanding the origins, significance, and implications of the four blood moons as promoted by John Hagee requires a deep dive into biblical prophecy, astronomical events, and their perceived prophetic meanings.

What Are the Four Blood Moons?

Definition and Astronomical Explanation

The term "blood moon" refers to a lunar eclipse during which the Earth blocks direct sunlight from reaching the moon, casting it in a reddish hue. These eclipses are natural celestial phenomena that occur roughly two to four times a year, but when four such lunar eclipses occur in a specific pattern over two years, they are called a "tetrad."

Key points about blood moons:

- They are caused by the Earth's shadow falling on the moon during a lunar eclipse.
- The red coloration comes from sunlight passing through Earth's atmosphere and scattering, similar to a sunset.
- A tetrad involves four consecutive lunar eclipses with no partial eclipses in between, often separated by six months.

The Biblical Connection

The idea of the four blood moons as a prophetic sign originates from biblical passages, primarily from the Book of Joel, Acts, and Revelation, which mention the moon turning to blood before significant end-times events. The specific mention of blood moons in relation to Israel and the Jewish people has led many to interpret these astronomical events as divine signals.
