Layout and Design

The calendar's layout is thoughtfully designed to balance beauty with practicality. Each month is organized with a clear grid for dates, along with ample space for notes and reminders. The date boxes are large enough to jot down appointments or special events without feeling cramped.

The floral artwork is typically positioned at the top or side of each page, serving as a decorative focal point that doesn't interfere with the functional elements. The overall color palette is harmonious, often complementing the floral theme to enhance visual harmony.
