Introducing Book from the Ground

Concept and Inspiration

Book from the Ground, also known as 'Ground,' is a monumental installation that Xu Bing began developing in 2010. The work originated from his interest in the universal aspects of visual language and the idea that communication can transcend linguistic barriers. Xu Bing aimed to create a visual 'language' made up of symbols and signs that could be understood universally, regardless of cultural background or spoken language.

The inspiration behind the project also stemmed from the proliferation of digital symbols, emojis, and icons that now serve as a global visual language. Xu Bing envisioned a massive, accessible, and immersive space where visitors could 'read' and interpret a new form of communication based solely on visual symbols.

- A complex system of visual language that combines Chinese characters, Roman letters, emojis, and invented symbols

What is Book from the Ground?

Published in 2019, Book from the Ground is an ambitious, participatory, and multilingual visual language project. It comprises a vast catalog of simple icons and symbols designed to communicate basic concepts universally, transcending linguistic barriers. The work is presented as a "ground-up" approach to understanding the world—hence the title—by creating a universal visual language accessible to all, regardless of literacy or language background.

The Concept and Philosophy Behind Book from the Ground

The Vision of Universal Communication

Xu Bing's primary motivation was to develop a tool for global understanding—akin to a modern pictorial language that anyone can interpret. Recognizing the limitations of spoken and written language, especially in our interconnected yet fragmented world, Xu Bing envisioned a system of visual symbols that could serve as a common lingua franca.

The Ground as a Metaphor

The title Book from the Ground emphasizes starting from the most basic, foundational level of communication—"the ground"—and building upward. It suggests a bottom-up approach to understanding, emphasizing simplicity, clarity, and universality.

Participatory and Collaborative Creation

Unlike traditional books authored solely by one individual, Xu Bing involved communities around the world in creating and expanding the icon set. This collective process embodies the idea that language and meaning are social constructs, continuously evolving through shared understanding.
