Detailed Analysis of the Questions

Question 1: Decolonization and its Consequences in Africa

Sample Question: ?To what extent did the legacy of colonial rule influence political instability in post-independence Africa??

Analysis:

This question is emblematic of the IB's emphasis on causality and causative factors. It invites candidates to assess the lingering impacts of colonial borders, governance structures, and economic systems on subsequent stability. Key points to consider include:

- Artificial Borders: Many African nations inherited borders drawn without regard to ethnic or cultural divisions, leading to ongoing conflicts and weak national identities.
- Colonial Governance: The colonial administration's focus on resource extraction and control often neglected building institutions capable of self-governance.
- Economic Legacies: Economies structured around colonial resource extraction suffered from underdevelopment and dependence, fueling unrest.
- Post-Independence Leadership: The rise of authoritarian regimes, sometimes as a reaction to colonial legacies, contributed to instability.

Candidates should evaluate these factors, providing specific case studies such as Nigeria, Congo, or Kenya, to illustrate how colonial legacies shaped political trajectories.

Question 2: Cold War Dynamics in Southeast Asia

Sample Question: ?Evaluate the extent to which Cold War rivalry influenced conflicts in Southeast Asia during the period 1950-1975.?

- The Cambodian and Laotian Conflicts: The spillovers of Cold War proxy wars.
- The Role of International Organizations: The influence of NATO, SEATO, and non-aligned movements.

Students should ensure a thorough understanding of the regional histories, key events, and historiographical debates relevant to the questions. Developing a timeline of major events, leaders, and themes is helpful.
