Boundaries and Control

While some interpret boundaries as a way to control others, Cloud and Townsend clarify that boundaries are about controlling oneself—what one allows or tolerates—rather than controlling others' behaviors.

Boundary Lines: The Four Zones

The authors introduce the concept of boundary zones to help visualize how boundaries operate in relationships:

- The Zone of No Control: Situations beyond personal control (e.g., others' choices).
- The Zone of Responsibility: Areas where one is responsible for oneself and others (e.g., own emotions, actions).
- The Zone of Influence: Where one can influence others such as offering advice or support.
